MELTING POT OF STUDENTS FROM DIVERSE SOCIO-CULTURAL BACKGROUNDS

The institute being geographically well connected by road and railways with a huge rural hinterland, providing education at a low cost with additional provision of various scholarships, and being equipped with highly qualified faculties attracts students of all race, religion, culture, social and economic backgrounds (minorities, SC/ST, OBC, General, urban, semi-urban and rural). All kinds of students gather under one umbrella to attain holistic development in the institution fostering homogeneity out of the heterogeneity of their social and economic diversities. The cultural amalgamation and integration is achieved by a melting together approach through various initiatives undertaken by the college like its different best practices, programmes and high level academic pursuits. Thus the “Melting Pot” becomes an apt metaphor for the unity in diversity achieved by the institution.

- ❖ The college caters to students belonging to diverse socio-economic, religious and cultural backgrounds thereby serving as a melting pot that promotes an amalgamation of different cultures creating harmony out of diversity and difference. The demographic diversity of the student population is illustrated through the charts given below.

through the hoisting of the national flag and cultural programs. NSS volunteers participated in Har Ghar Tiranga event and Ekta Shrinkhala Campaign. To remember their responsibilities and duties towards the country and society, students participated in the seminar (online) on National Youth Day. NSS volunteers read out the Preamble of the Indian Constitution (online) every year on the Constitution Day of India. To highlight cultural and linguistic diversity and to encourage tolerance and respect for different cultures among students, different departments celebrate International Mother Language Day every year.
